

Draw a story competition

WIN
a Crayola hamper!

Create your own illustrations for The Dream-spinner, a magical short story by Sally Rippin.

One paragraph of the story will be published each month from December to April. Children aged up to 12 can enter, and all entries will be displayed online!

For details, visit slv.vic.gov.au/lookcomp

FREE EXHIBITION
State Library of Victoria
3 December 2010–29 May 2011
slv.vic.gov.au/look

Illustration by Ann James, from Lucy Goosey (text by Margaret Wild), Little Hare Books, 2007

How to enter:

- On page 2 of this entry form, read this month's paragraph and draw, paint or collage your illustration.
- Fill in your details below.
- Place your entry in the box at the State Library, or mail it to Draw a Story Competition, State Library of Victoria, 328 Swanston Street, Melbourne 3000.

Name ..... Age .....

Address .....

Phone .....

Winners' names and ages will be published on the State Library of Victoria's website. For the Library's privacy policy, visit slv.vic.gov.au/about-us/plans-policies/privacy-policy.

Much as Sam loved the dream, when he saw the sad girl he knew the dream wasn't his to keep. That night he blew the dream out into the speckled darkness, and it floated down over the sleeping girl. From his place among the clouds, Sam smiled as he thought about the stories she would have to tell when she woke.

